

I support XM's right to broadcast Weather and Traffic .They are a paid subscribed service and have expenses, such as satellites that regular radio does not have.
They do not compete with the typical broadcasting services and should be regulated with according flexibility.